

Before they leave the stage

Not all will enjoy these autobiographical testimonies like I do. Why do I enjoy them so much? Because I have had the privilege to sit under the preaching of these men. Almost all of them spoke once or more at the annual Skogheim Conference in past years. Some of these brothers, with their wives, Soniah and I got to know personally; some preached in our church; a few even stayed over in our home.

Without exception we came to respect them as true servants of God.

These few recordings have filled us once again with gratitude for the privilege of the worldwide fellowship of the saints.
